* PRESS RELEASE *******

The Santa Barbara County District Attorney's Office is in close and continuing contact with Canadian authorities concerning the legal status of Randy and Evy Quaid in that sovereign jurisdiction. An immigration hearing in Canada is currently scheduled for October 28, 2010 to examine a request by them for asylum. We will continue to cooperate with Canadian authorities in their inquiry.

The Santa Barbara District Attorney's Office has previously obtained a court ordered warrant for these defendants with bail set in an amount of $500,000 to compel their appearance in the Santa Barbara Superior Court on October 26, 2010 to answer criminal charges previously filed against them.

This office will defer any decision on possible extradition or further actions until the Canadian proceedings are concluded.
