PARKS No. 15-029

November 13, 2015
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cachuma Lake Recreation Activity Calendar December 2015

GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

We are in the midst of “Eagle Season” at Cachuma Lake and cruises now highlight resident and migratory bald eagles, as well as other wildlife here for the winter season. The daytime may be short in length, but the park offers much recreation and leisure, so each day will be pleasantly be filled. Spend this holiday season in the great outdoors enjoying the tranquility, sights and sounds of nature.

Cachuma Lake Recreation Area is a beautiful outdoor destination set amidst oak woodlands in the picturesque Santa Ynez Valley in Santa Barbara County. At Cachuma Lake, you will find practically everything you need for a relaxing lakeside getaway in the great outdoors: Year-round cabin, tent, yurt, and RV camping, boating, boat and kayak rentals, fishing, eagle cruises on the lake, the Neal Taylor Nature Center, bird watching, hiking, photography, picnics, and a general store. Mild temperatures, typically sunny skies, and good fishing conditions make year-round camping here exceptionally rewarding. Located off scenic Highway 154 in the Santa Ynez Valley, Cachuma Lake is midway between the coast of Santa Barbara, area wineries, and the Danish community of Solvang. For easy trip planning, Cachuma Lake takes online reservations, visit the Parks website at www.sbparks.org.
